North Dakotans have free access to a broad range of online educational and popular materials thanks to the North Dakota State Library. Funding comes from multiple sources including: the ND Legislature, the Institute of Museums and Library Services and from libraries in the state.

Resources include full-text articles, images, audio & video clips, magazines, reference items, and more.

The databases are a great place for students to begin research. These online library resources can be searched 24/7; all you need is a free library card from your local library or the ND State Library. Parents and teachers can rest assured that these online library resources are evaluated for quality, are ad-free, and are appropriate for students of all ages.

The North Dakota State Library pays for these resources, so let's get our money's worth and use them. Free training is available remotely and at your library or school. If you have questions or would like training on any of the databases, contact us at statelib@nd.gov or 1-800-472-2104.

April 7-8, 2014 for the ND State Library Spring Workshops

The North Dakota State Library will present the 2014 Spring Workshops on Monday and Tuesday, April 7th & 8th at the Bismarck Comfort Inn.

A block of rooms have been reserved for these dates, call 1-701-223-1911 and ask for the conference rate.

We are currently in the planning process for the 2014 Spring Workshops. Our goal is to provide opportunities for public and school librarians to explore a variety of relevant library issues. We hope to add to your toolbox of library skills.

Our featured speaker for Monday will be Jamie LaRue, an author and frequent keynote speaker at library associations. Explore his website for biographical information at <http://www.jlarue.com/>.

On Tuesday the sessions will follow two tracks: one for public librarians and one for school librarians.

Look for more details about sessions as planning continues. Online registration will begin early next year, 2014.

CONTINUING EDUCATION CHOICES

These webinars are free, live, and interactive. You will be connected to audio using a headset or speakers. If you do not have a microphone, you can use chat to ask questions. You can find more webinars and training opportunities on our Facebook page under the events tab! <http://on.fb.me/1gcp68H>

New “Databases” tab on the State Library webpage:

The quickest way to get to the list of databases from the ND State Library homepage is to click the Databases tab below the search box. No matter which State Library webpage you visit, the Databases tab will always be displayed. Hopefully, less clicks and less scrolling will make the databases easier to access and increase usage.

The screenshot shows the North Dakota State Library homepage. At the top, it says "North Dakota nd.gov Official Portal for North Dakota State Government". The main header features the "North Dakota State Library" logo. Below the logo is a search bar with a dropdown menu set to "Our Catalog" and a "Find!" button. A navigation menu below the search bar includes links for "Home", "Services for the Public", "Services for Libraries and Education", "Services for Government", "About Us", and "Databases". The "Databases" link is highlighted with a red rectangular box. Below the navigation menu is a large blue banner for "The North Dakota State Library's Newsletter: The Flickertale" with a call to action: "Click here to see the most recent issue of the Flickertale!" and "Don't miss an issue!". To the right of the banner is a "Tweets" section showing a tweet from @ndgov about Thanksgiving Day and a tweet from @NDStateLibrary. At the bottom right, there are social media icons for Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, LinkedIn, and RSS, with the text "Connect with NDSL" above them.

Online Library Resource: Britannica Learning Zone for PreK-2

Designed by education experts for PreK-2 learners, Britannica Learning Zone presents activity-centered learning in reading, numbers, shapes, colors, time, sounds, geography, and more. Young learners can watch geography videos, explore, play, read, and draw.

Britannica Learning Zone can be accessed directly from the ND State Library database webpage (<http://library.nd.gov/onlineresources.html>), or from the elementary level of Britannica School.

Connectivity issues with Britannica Learning Zone (PreK-2) have been temporarily resolved with a login for North Dakota. The login has been sent to ND schools and public libraries via listservs. You can also ask for the login by contacting the ND State Library Reference desk at 1-800-472-2104 or statelib@nd.gov.

LIBRARY GRANT OPPORTUNITIES

YALSA/BEST BUY TEEN TECH WEEK MINI GRANT

DEADLINE: JANUARY 1

This grant is designed to encourage outstanding digital literacy focused Teen Tech Week activities. The applicant must plan and present an outline for a Teen Tech Week activity that is coordinated by a library. The activity must be open to all teens (12-18 years). YALSA encourages innovative proposals that help teens gain skills in using digital media, whether to help with school, work, pursue hobbies or explore careers. The $1,000 grant, made possible by Best Buy, is to be used to support the activity. <http://bit.ly/18fDJmM>

THE BIG READ

DEADLINE: JANUARY 28

The Big Read is a program of the National Endowment for the Arts designed to revitalize the role of literature in American culture and to encourage citizens to read for pleasure and enlightenment. The Big Read provides organizations with grants and comprehensive resources that support their efforts to inspire their community to read and discuss a single book or the work of a poet. Eligible organizations may apply for a grant ranging from $2,500 to $20,000. Grants must be matched 1 to 1 with nonfederal funds. Grant funds may be used for such expenses as book purchases, speaker fees and travel, salaries, advertising, and venue rental. <http://bit.ly/1eTGxI8>

NEA STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT GRANTS

DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 1

The NEA Foundation provides grants to improve the academic achievement of students in U.S. public schools and public higher education institutions in any subject area(s). The proposed work should engage students in critical thinking and problem solving that deepen their knowledge of standards-based subject matter. The work should also improve students' habits of inquiry, self-directed learning, and critical reflection. Applicants should be public school educators or support professionals. <http://bit.ly/188orCH>

SPARKS! IGNITION GRANTS FOR LIBRARIES

DEADLINE: FEBRUARY 3

The Sparks! Ignition Grants for Libraries encourage libraries to test and evaluate specific innovations in the ways they operate and the services they provide. Sparks Grants support the deployment, testing, and evaluation of promising and groundbreaking new tools, products, services, or organizational practices. Successful proposals will address problems, challenges, or needs of broad relevance to libraries. A proposed project should test a specific, innovative response to the identified problem and present a plan to make the findings widely and openly accessible. <http://1.usa.gov/1k7KfhH>

THE GLOBAL FUND FOR CHILDREN

DEADLINE: ONGOING

The Global Fund for Children selects grantee partners based on their demonstrated potential to produce sustainable improvement in the lives of vulnerable children and youth and to serve as a resource or model for other organizations. <http://bit.ly/18krd2h>

..... Summer Reading Corner

Fizz..BOOM..Read!

Summer Reading Workshops

Registration is now open for the 2014 Summer Reading Workshops! They will be held in February at six locations around the state (Bismarck, Minot, Dickinson, Grand Forks, Wahpeton, Jamestown). You can register at <http://bit.ly/1ecciyE>. There is no charge to attend this event. Each event will run from 10AM-4PM (Mountain time in Dickinson, Central time in all other locations). An hour and a half will be provided for lunch, which will be on your own. Also, if you haven't yet done so, don't forget to request your Summer Reading manual: <http://1.usa.gov/1elmq24>

Bedtime Math

A Summer of Numbers! Add some math to your Summer Reading Program! The Collaborative Summer Library Program (CSLP) has partnered with Bedtime Math to offer products and resources for incorporating math into this year's Summer Reading Program. It's a perfect tie-in to the science theme! Print a poster to promote a Summer of Numbers at your library. Preview the available products or log in to order.

Pioneer Recollections

Submitted by McVille Community Library

The library was filled with people for our Elderspeak program which featured Willard Olson presenting "Pioneer Recollections". Both laughter and sighs could be heard as he told stories of the early pioneers of this area, times of struggle and times of joy. Members of the audience had opportunity to ask questions and share their own memories and the stories that had been passed down to them as well. Joanne Brennan and Diane Urvand served a wonderful lunch of bars, lemonade and coffee, so that the visiting could continue even after the formal part of the program was concluded. We'd especially like to thank Debbi Brude for inviting Willard to speak and Willard for being willing to share his "Pioneer Recollections".

Merit Badges

Submitted by Carnegie Regional Public Library

In November, Carnegie Regional Library in Grafton hosted a Girl Scout troop working on a computer merit badge.

New Look for McVile

Submitted by McVile Community Library

A volunteer built this lovely Christmas tree from weeded books.

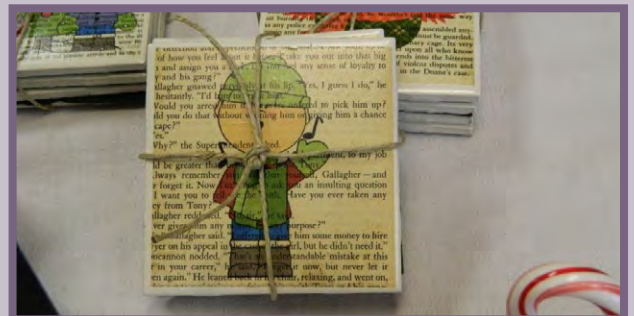

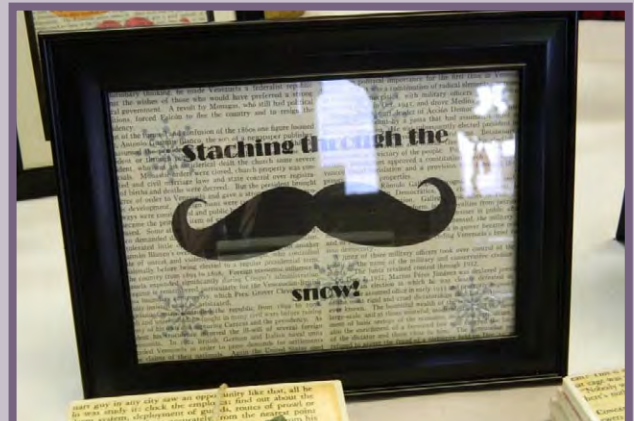

Carnegie Regional Library donated an old circulation desk to our library. We love it!

Weeded Book Fundraiser

Submitted by Edna Ralston Public Library

Edna Ralston librarians Melissa Lehman and Janna Phelps made book-themed crafts and decorations out of weeded books. They raised nearly $200 for the library by selling them at their Holiday Open House. Check out some of the creations below!

If you would like to see all of the crafts made for the fundraiser check out Edna Ralston's Facebook page: <http://on.fb.me/19gTmHC>

North Dakota Tidbits

- After nearly a quarter century of dedicated service, Bonnie MacIver will be retiring from her position as director of the Leach Public Library (Wahpeton) on December 31. During her reign, she's overseen the automation of the library, the addition of public access computers, the opening of a new children's area in the library's basement, enrollment in ODIN and in the ND Digital Consortium, and much more. She has also been actively involved with the North Dakota Library Association throughout her career. We're going to miss you, Bonnie!
- The land the James River Valley Library System (Jamestown) intended to purchase from Essentia Health as the location for their new library was sold to MetroPlains, who intend to build senior and affordable housing units on it.
- The Valley City Barnes County Public Library received an impressive 25% budget increase, as approved by both city and county officials. Plans for the library include computer upgrades, expanded collection budget, downloadable e-books, computer upgrades, improved programming, and building maintenance and repairs.
- On December 8, the Lidgerwood Public Library hosted a Tour of Homes fundraiser. There were five stops on the tour, each festively decorated for the holidays with trees, snowman rugs, and nativities. Coffee, apple cider, and treats were served at the library. Around 100 people attended the event.
- The Hebron Public Library recently held a fundraiser through Avon, in which 25% of the orders went to support the library. The money will be used to support their story time programming.
- The Bowman Regional Library is holding a Winter Art Sale on December 13th-14th, featuring art, crafts, pottery, and note cards. It's a perfect twofer—supporting the local library and supporting local artists.
- The Valley City Barnes County Public Library will be doing massive technological upgrades, replacing staff and public access computers, as well as their network hardware. The upgrades will be funded in large part by their recently awarded Library Vision 2014 Grant of $10,397.
- The Garrison Public Library hosted a release party for the film Catching Fire, to which all 7th-12th graders were invited. The party featured crafts, activities, a costume contest, and food.
- Last month, the Bismarck Veterans Memorial Library held a family-oriented program on the Lakota Language. The program featured a reading of a Berenstain Bears story in English by Whitetail Cross and a screening of the corresponding television episode in Lakota. The program was put on in partnership with the Lakota Language Nest, an early childhood program hosted by Sitting Bull College in Fort Yates
