Celebrating Library Joy Week: NDLA and NDSL Launch Weeklong Statewide Library Celebration

The North Dakota Library Association (NDLA) and the North Dakota State Library are excited to announce the inaugural collaborative initiative of Library Joy Week. This statewide library celebration will take place February 1-7, 2026, to coincide with "Take Your Child to the Library Day" on February 7. North Dakota libraries and residents are invited to share the joy that libraries inspire every day.

Throughout the week, libraries of all sizes are encouraged to host programs, events, and activities that showcase the moments of library joy that take place every day in your libraries.

"Libraries are much more than buildings filled with books; they are the heart of our communities where discovery and connection happen every day," says State Librarian Mary Soucie. "Library Joy Week is our way of shining a light on those small, transformative experiences—whether it's a child discovering their first favorite story or someone mastering a new skill. We are thrilled to partner with NDLA to celebrate the vibrant spirit of North Dakota's libraries."

"We are so excited to have the State Library join us in promoting this new initiative and help everyone discover their own spark of curiosity, discovery, and connection," added Jason Bedsaul, President of the North Dakota Library Association. "I'm excited to see all the events and activities that our libraries have planned for this event and for NDLA to be able to help contribute to the joy our libraries bring to their communities, campuses, and schools."

North Dakota residents are invited to participate by attending local library programs, sharing your favorite library memories, and by visiting the library to explore all the wonderful things that are offered.

This event aims to foster a deeper appreciation for the wonderful resources and services the libraries provide and the joyful moments they create for people of all ages.

More details will be shared with libraries and the public in the coming weeks. Let's celebrate the stories, spaces, and people that make our libraries so special. Join us in creating and sharing your own moments of library joy!

Help Decide North Dakota's Next "I Voted" Sticker

Submitted by North Dakota Office of the Secretary of State

The North Dakota Secretary of State's "I Voted" More Than Just a Sticker contest is down to five finalists—and now it's time for North Dakotans to help decide the winning design!

When someone wears an "I Voted" sticker to work, the grocery store, or to pick up their kids, they're inspiring others. It's a 2-inch declaration that says, "I matter, my voice counts, and I'm part of something bigger than myself."

Go to sos.nd.gov/stickervote by January 23 to vote for your favorite sticker. The winning design will be announced in March 2026 and will debut at the polls during the 2026 Primary Election on June 9.

Book Club Kit

"Rebel Daughter" by Lori Banov Kaufmann

Esther dreams of so much more than the marriage her parents have arranged to a prosperous silversmith. Always curious and eager to explore, she must accept the burden of being the dutiful daughter. Yet she is torn between her family responsibilities and her own desires. Meanwhile, the growing turmoil threatens to tear apart not only her beloved city, Jerusalem, but also her own family. As the streets turn into a bloody battleground between rebels and Romans, Esther's journey becomes one of survival. She remains fiercely devoted to her family, and braves famine, siege, and slavery to protect those she loves. This emotional and impassioned saga, based on real characters and meticulous research, seamlessly blends the fascinating story of the Jewish people with a timeless protagonist determined to take charge of her own life against all odds.

This kit includes ten books, a discussion guide, and a sign-in sheet.

The Art of Setting Goals

Submitted by Al Peterson

We've all done it. We all have made a New Year's resolution to change a behavior or develop a new habit or make some significant change in our life only to give up on it, sometimes almost immediately after making it. That doesn't mean we are failures or losers; we may have just set ourselves up for failure by not setting a realistic goal or not setting a goal at all. Goals are the compasses that guide our decisions and actions. They provide purpose, direction, and a sense of accomplishment when achieved. The act of setting goals is not merely a task. It's an art and science that directly influences our happiness, success, and personal fulfillment. If you are looking to set up goals you want to achieve in the new year, then Universal Class can help. The Art of Setting Goals is a 15-lesson course that is designed to empower your understanding of the multifaceted world of goal setting. Each module of this course is interspersed with real-life examples, interactive polls, and assignments designed to provide hands-on experience. By weaving theory with practice, the course ensures that learners don't just understand the "how" but also the "why" behind each concept.

So, if you're eager to elevate your goal-setting game, to steer your life's ship with more purpose and precision, take this course. Discover what's possible and how your goals can become your successes.

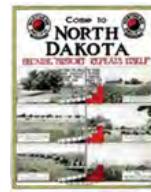

As always, Universal Class courses are self-paced and taken at your convenience on your own time.
